Introduction

Product reviews have always played a key role in an online store's branding and marketing. In this new decade of online shopping, regular reviews are no longer enough for a customer's product pre-evaluation and for a brand to convince their shoppers. In order to help the merchants reinforce their customer's trust and give them better product validation, Magenest has developed PhotoReview extension, a tool that allows customers to give visually attracted feedback to the products they purchased.

Highlight Features

For Admin

- Send emails to remind customers to review their purchased products.
- Add comments on customers' reviews
